

HARVEST DAY AT HAMPTON FARM

Sunday, October 26, 2014: 11 pm to 4pm

Please join us for this free family festival featuring fun on the farm!

ONGOING FARM ACTIVITIES throughout the day, including a cider-pressing demonstration, cornhusking with take-away dried corn and husks for your autumn decor, and, in honor of the 150th anniversary of Emancipation in the state of Maryland, a brief talk on Slavery and Emancipation at 12 pm in the farmhouse.

OLD TIME MUSIC featuring Ken and Brad Kolodner on hammered dulcimer, fiddle, banjo and vocals, along with Alex LacQuement on stand-up bass.

Performance: 1 pm - 2:30 pm.

Open jam: 2:30 - 4 pm. Bring a lawn chair and your instrument!

In case of inclement weather, music will take place in the Orangery (next to Mansion), and due to limited capacity, will be first-come, first-served.

For more details, please email: info@historichampton.org www.historichampton.org; www.nps.gov/hamp; www.kenandbrad.com

Hampton National Historic Site - 535 Hampton Lane, Towson MD 21286